ADVISING NOTES:

*Accounting courses need to be taken sequentially

Financial Economics majors are required to take an assessment exam prior to graduation. The test is provided at no charge. Students will be informed of the time and date of the examination. The examination requirement may be waived in the case of special circumstances by the Department Chair of Economics or Finance & Marketing or by the Dean of the College of Business and Economics.

The Communication Focus (CF) course and the three writing proficiency points are built into the major.

The required 60 upper-division credits are built into the major.

12 credits of upper-division economics electives under departmental advisement; a minimum of 8 of these credits must be at the 400 level

8 credits of upper-division finance electives under Professor Benson's advisement; a minimum of 4 of these credits must be at the 400 level

NOTE: ECON 309, ECON 311, ECON 446 and ECON 447 may not be counted towards this major.
