For Business Students

Australia
- Edith Cowan University – Accounting, Economics, Finance, Human Resources, International Business, Management, Management of Information Technology, Marketing, and Urban and Regional Planning
- University of Newcastle – Human Resources, International Business, Logistics and Supply Chain Management, Management, Marketing, Politics and International Relations, Tourism, Accounting, Economics, and Finance
- University of Tasmania – Economics, Accounting, Management, Information Systems, Corporate Governance, Tourism, Marketing, Finance, Human Resources, and Electronic Commerce

Austria
- Karl Franzens-Universitat Gräz – Business Administration and Economics. Most courses are taught in German

Finland
- Aalto University School of Business – This program focuses on the study of international business. All courses are taught in English

France
- Kedge Business School (formally known as Bordeaux Ecole de Management) – This program focuses on the study of Management and Supply Chain management. Courses are taught in English or French

Germany
- RWTH Aachen University – Business Administration and Economics. All courses are taught in German.
- University of Duisburg-Essen – Mercator School of Management. All courses are taught in German. There is also a separate Spring/Summer program offered in English.
- Georg-August-Universität Göttingen – Business and Economics. All courses are taught in German. Preference is given to students applying to the Faculty of Social Science.

Japan
- Akita International University – Global Business Program. All courses are taught in English

South Korea
- Yonsei University – Business and Economics. Courses available in English and Korean.

Sweden
- Luleå University of Technology – Business and Economics. Courses available in English and Swedish.
- University of Umeå – Business, Accounting, Marketing, and Economics. Courses available in English and Swedish.

Taiwan
- National Chengchi University – Economics, Finance, Marketing, and Human Resources. Courses taught in English.

United Kingdom
- University of Hull – Accounting, Management, Supply Chain Management, Business, Economics, Finance, and Marketing